IMPORTANT INFORMATION!

1. Be in the A.I. band room by 4:00 pm on Wednesday, 11/27/2019. We will depart for Philadelphia as soon as possible.
2. Dinner is not provided. Everyone should bring a small amount of money to order pizza or other food. You should also pack some snacks and drinks for the bus. A full American breakfast is included on Thursday morning.
3. Bring any medication that you may need. This includes spare contacts or glasses. Everyone should have some form of ID.
4. Bring your COMPLETE uniform in your garment bag and all parts of your instrument. You may also bring one small carry-on...NO SUITCASES! It will more than likely be very cold. Bring warm clothes to wear under your uniform during the parade.
5. Do not bring expensive cameras, electronic devices, watches, jewelry, any illegal substance (including alcohol, drugs, pyrotechnics, any item which can be constructed as a weapon), or large sums of cash.
6. Students are not permitted to leave the hotel. Never leave the group to go off on your own.
7. Students are to sign up, four-to-a-room, when instructed to do so by Mr. Weaver. Rooms that do not have 4 students may be split or combined. Signing up for a room means that you do plan on traveling and are financially responsible for the room. Chaperons will be housed two adults per room.
8. DO THE RIGHT THING! At all times during this trip, you are to adhere to the Red Clay Student Code of Conduct, the laws of the states of Delaware and Pennsylvania, and the policies of this band. Any violation will result in serious consequences. Suspended students cannot travel with the band (no refund)
9. Questions? Please contact Mr. Weaver at 302-598-4114 or richard.weaver@redclay.k12.de.us
10. This trip is only for marching band students who also participate in evening band practices.
